

Press Release

ON THIN ICE: ECHOES OF PINK FLOYD

Seriously authentic Pink Floyd Tribute band based in Kent. A leading tribute act since 2014

Press Release: Wednesday 28th August 2024

On Thin Ice bring their Pink Floyd tribute to
The Gulbenkian Theatre, Canterbury on Saturday 21st September 2024

‘Echoes of Pink Floyd’ is a highly detailed show that recreates the atmosphere of the band live. The performance features meticulous detailed musicianship and over two hours of incredible music every Floyd fan would hope for and love! Expect a genuine recreation of iconic songs from albums such as The Dark Side of the Moon, Wish You Were Here, Animals, The Wall, Division Bell, A Saucerful of Secrets and Meddle, including the much-requested epic, “Echoes.” A true celebration of everything Floyd.

On Saturday 21st September, On Thin Ice bring their authentic sounds to the Gulbenkian Theatre, the University of Kent’s Arts Centre offering innovative, engaging and high-quality arts activities. The theatre is an Arts Council of England National Portfolio Organisation and part of the Institute of Cultural and Creative Industries at University of Kent.

Join On Thin Ice as they delve deep into the band’s songbook history and share their passion for Pink Floyd’s music at Gulbenkian, University of Kent, Canterbury, Kent, CT2 7NB.

Tickets:

£20 in advance or on the door. Show starts at 7:30pm.

Book here: <https://thegulbenkian.co.uk/events/echoes-of-pink-floyd/>. The Gulbenkian Access Scheme is free for people with physical, sensory or learning disabilities. By joining the scheme patrons may be entitled to concessionary ticket prices for some events or a free companion seat. Contact the Arts Centre or visit their website for more information.

Further ticket and band information: <https://www.onthinicefloyd.com/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/onthinicefloyd>

Warning: The show contains flashing lights and strobe effects

“A must-see band, On Thin Ice are gaining an enviable reputation locally and have dates booked in Kent, Essex, Sussex and London later this year.” – Kent Review Magazine, May 2024

Media: Please contact On Thin Ice if your publication or radio station would like to feature band interviews and music

